MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 21st November 1960

G.S.R. 1367.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Salaries and Allowances of Ministers Act, 1952 (58 of 1952), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendments in the Ministers' (Allowances, Medical Treatment and other privileges) Rules, 1957, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Ministers' (Allowances, Medical Treatment and other privileges) Amendment Rules, 1960.

2. In the Ministers' (Allowances, Medical Treatment and other privileges), Rules, 1957 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), in rule 12, after sub-rule (2), the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3) A Minister, when travelling on duty by road, shall be entitled, without payment, to take with him one relative.”

3. In rule 13 of the said rules,—(i) after sub-rule (1), the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2) A Minister who does not utilize the free transport provided by the Air Company between the air-booking Centre and the airport may also recover, in respect of the journey to or from the airport, actual travelling expenses or road mileage as for journey on duty by road admissible under rule 12.”;

(ii) existing sub-rule (2) shall be renumbered as sub-rule (3).

4. In rule 23 of the said rules, after item (iii), the following items shall be inserted, namely:—

“(iv) A Deputy Minister, when travelling on duty by road, shall be entitled, without payment, to take one relative. . .

(v) In the case of a journey by air on duty, a Deputy Minister who does not utilize the free transport provided by the Air Company between the air-booking Centre and the airport shall be entitled to draw mileage allowance in respect of the road journey between the “duty point” and the airport.

- (vi) A Deputy Minister shall be entitled to draw the actual cost of hiring a conveyance for short road journeys on duty at his headquarters for which no travelling allowance is admissible to him under these rules, subject to his furnishing a certificate in each case that such conveyance was hired because a staff car could not be made available by the Ministry concerned or taken on loan from any other Ministry.
- (vii) The proviso to Supplementary Rule 46 does not apply to Deputy Ministers."
